 BWC RECORDING ***
 BAKER ACT - ADULT ***

On 09/12/2026, at approximately 1507 hours, deputies responded to [redacted], Deltona, Volusia County, FL, in reference to suicidal statements made by [redacted] (V1) to her boyfriend, [redacted] (O1). Contact was initially made with [redacted] via cellphone, as he was at a friend's residence in Deland, FL.
[redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] and [redacted] are dating and reside together at the listed address. [redacted] stated [redacted] became upset after observing photos of females on his Instagram "Explore" page, which led to a verbal argument. [redacted] subsequently made statements that she was going to shoot herself. [redacted] advised there are firearms accessible to [redacted] his AR 15 rifle, a firearm in his work truck, and another smaller caliber firearm inside the residence.

[redacted] reported that [redacted] left the residence in her [redacted] [redacted] left the residence shortly afterward. As he exited the neighborhood, he observed [redacted] driving back toward their home. [redacted] also received text messages from [redacted] stating she was going to "blow her head off with the gun in the bedside table."

[redacted] later returned home and provided a sworn written statement. A safety check of the residence confirmed [redacted]s Aero Precision AR 15 300 Blackout rifle was missing. [redacted] stated that if the rifle was not inside the residence, [redacted] had taken it with her. [redacted] was last seen wearing a pink tank top and possibly pants.

A cellphone ping was conducted on [redacted]s device, showing her location near Montecito Avenue and Alton Road. Deputies checked the area and located [redacted] sitting in her vehicle, in the tree line. A perimeter was established, and resources including patrol units, the Crime Suppression Team, and a municipality drone were utilized.

[redacted] complied with verbal commands, was detained, and placed in properly fitted, double locked handcuffs behind her back. [redacted] advised the following:

[redacted] confirmed she had been in a verbal argument with [redacted] over Instagram photos and stated she intentionally took [redacted]'s firearm and drove to the park with the intent to shoot herself.

Based on [redacted]'s statements, her actions, and deputies' observations, she was determined to be a danger to herself if left alone. [redacted] was placed into protective custody under the Baker Act. A search of her person revealed no weapons or contraband.

Per [redacted], the firearm was in her back seat covered in a towel. A check of her vehicle located [redacted]'s Aero Precision AR 15 300 Blackout rifle (serial #M4 0372578), which [redacted] confirmed belonged to [redacted].

Criminal history checks on both [redacted] and [redacted] revealed no prior arrests or convictions. An FCIC/NCIC check of the firearm returned negative results.

After conferring with supervisors on scene, the firearm was returned to [redacted] [redacted] requested [redacted] retrieve her vehicle to avoid having it towed, which he did.

[redacted] was transported to the Volusia Sheriff's Office District 4 for administrative paperwork and subsequently transported to Halifax Hospital in Daytona Beach, FL.

Photos were taken of [redacted] vehicle, the firearm, and the text messages that were sent from [redacted] to [redacted] indicating the self-harm. These photos were uploaded to Evidene.com.

A Risk Protection Order (RPO) was completed on [redacted]
