Upon arrival, Deputy Killingsworth made contact with [redacted] (V1), who provided the following statement:

[redacted] stated she and [redacted] (D1), with whom she shares four children and has been in a romantic relationship for the past ten years, were involved in a verbal argument regarding her not responding to his text messages and not having access to the residence camera system.

According to [redacted], [redacted] became upset over her lack of response and his not having camera access. [redacted] stated that during the argument, [redacted] grabbed her by her shirt and threw her onto the floor. While she was lying on the floor, [redacted] told her that if she did not get up, he was going to kick her.

[redacted] stated that after she got up from the floor, [redacted] grabbed her by her shirt again but then released her and walked outside. [redacted] advised that while [redacted] was outside, he sent her a text message that stated, "I want y'all to leave, I'm ready to put my mind to rest." [redacted] further stated that when [redacted] sent that message, he was holding his firearm in his pocket. [redacted] completed a sworn written statement and elected to pursue criminal charges.

Deputy Killingsworth then made contact with [redacted], who provided the following statement:

[redacted] stated he has been going through a difficult time and has been feeling very depressed. [redacted] advised that when he arrived home, he attempted to have a conversation with [redacted]. According to [redacted] the conversation became emotional, and he felt [redacted] was not understanding him. [redacted] admitted to grabbing [redacted]s shirt but stated he did so only to bring her closer to him.

He denied lifting [redacted] off the ground and denied throwing her onto the bed.

[redacted] completed all required domestic violence documentation and provided the necessary paperwork. She also completed a Domestic Violence Lethality Assessment, which indicated she was is in a potentially lethal situation.

Based on Deputy Killingsworth's investigation, including statements provided, observations, and evidence gathered, it was determined [redacted] was the primary aggressor for grabbing [redacted] by the shirt and throwing her onto the bed.
